Literary Notes.

The Constitution of the United States of America has put a new meaning into the word citizenship. The high ideals of the fathers of our country have laid the foundations of good citizenship in such a way that the industries, high-minded, ambitious men and women of all nations have flocked to our shores.

The present prominence of our nation among the nations of the world and its new fields of usefulness and power have given to American citizenship a fresh inspiration toward true living and great accomplishment.

The high sentiments of our Chief Executive in his address, "The New Citizen," printed in The Youth's Companion, are fittingly published in the Washington's Birthday Number. George Washington, by his pure life and wise conservatism and ambition for the new country, fairly won his title of father of his country. Theodore Roosevelt, the best exponent of our twentieth century activity, has equally high ideals for the nation; and in this address and in his life he lays particular stress on the individual, his stewardship, his usefulness in home and public life.

Washington and Lincoln led our nation over its most difficult paths. It has been left in recent years for such men as Theodore Roosevelt to embody the highest ideals of private and public citizenship.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Forced to Enjoy It.

There is no doubt that most of us object, by instinct, to what is "for our good." H. Rider Haggard says, in his "Winter Pilgrimage," that he had, early in life, an opportunity for imbibing a knowledge for which he did not care. He continues: "When I was 'a soaring human boy,' my father took me up the Rhine by boat, with the expectation that my mind would be improved by contemplating its lovely and historic banks. Very soon, however, I wearied of the feast, and slipped down to the cabin to enjoy 'Robinson Crusoe.'"

But some family traitor betrayed me, and protesting even with tears that I "hated views," I was dragged on deck again. "I have paid six thalers," shouted my justly indignant parent, as he hauled me up the steamer stairs, "for you to study the Rhine scenery! And whether you like it or not, young man, study it you shall!"

Lockjaw from Cobwebs.

Cobwebs put on a cut lately gave a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a cut is Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of wounds, ulcers, sores, skin eruptions, burns, scalds and piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at all druggists.

When bullet or sword-thrust hushes the breath of one upon the field of battle, the heart of some woman is also wounded. — March Ladies' Home Journal.

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it and before using two thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

The small brother and sister were engaged in one of those discussions which often raise profound philosophical questions. "You see, Jack," said Betty, "we are here in this world just to be good to others." "No, we aren't, either," asserted Jack, "for then what are the others here for?"

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

No matter how much money you may have, if you are poor in character, that means poverty forever.—March Ladies' Home Journal.

The Natural Remedy.

There is an old negro in Washington who believes that the art of healing is a "gift" not to be acquired. A friend who knew his point of view recently attempted to draw him out.

"You say you're a natural doctor. Uncle Enos; now what would you recommend in case of ague?"

Uncle Enos leaned on his broom in silence for a moment, lost in thought, but when he spoke it was with the calm assurance of an oracle.

"De bes' medicine for de ague would be an efferecent powder, to puff out de skin and lift it off de bones. When de skin is drawn tight over de bones, and de ague begins to shrink it, de bones is jes' natchely painful an' acheful, sah. De de efferecent powder it fiaz an' fiaz inside an' puff out de skin, an' obliivate de difficulty in a sho't time, sah!"

Can't Keep It Secret.

The splendid work of Dr. King's New Life Pills is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Try them. 25c at all druggists.

After all, our lives are lived, as it were, in a circle. We generally end where we begin.—March Ladies' Home Journal.

Poison Oak Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will loiter in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote

FOR
is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure. Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulfur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidences of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases. An interesting narrative of facts, explains the so-called "Retrospect Movement," the "Loop," the "Cooling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse rumor of the Court of Inquiry.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when Governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the best account I have heard or read of the naval fighting during the war. It needed just as much courage to go about taking photographs as it did to work the guns."

No subject has ever been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the hero of Santiago.
